On this day, the Court considered Plaintiff's ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining Merchant Storefronts and Defendants' Assets with the Financial Institutions; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants, Third Party Service Providers and Financial Institutions in light of Defendants' intentional and willful offerings for sale and/or sales of Counterfeit Products.¹ A complete list of Defendants is attached hereto as Schedule A, which also includes links to Defendants' Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings. Having reviewed the Application, Declarations of Kevin Herring and Gabriela N. Nastasi, along with exhibits attached thereto and other evidence submitted in support thereof, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

PRELIMINARY FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Denim Tears, launched in 2019, is a successful and high-end lifestyle streetwear line of men's and women's apparel, as well as accessories, bags and other ready-made goods which are distributed through various channels of trade in the United States and abroad.
2. The Denim Tears Products are marketed under the Denim Tears Marks.
3. The Denim Tears Products are sold direct to consumer via Denim Tears' official website, <https://denimtears.com/>, the Denim Tears' flagship retail store located in New York City and the multi-brand retailer Dover Street Market. Due to the popularity of the Denim Tears Brand, the Denim Tears Products are also sold on high-end reseller websites where the Denim Tears Products are often sold for more than the original selling price, including GOAT, Grailed and StockX.

¹ Where a defined term is referenced herein and not defined herein, the defined term should be understood as it is defined in the Glossary.

4. The Denim Tears Products typically retail for between $50.00 - $700.00.
5. While Denim Tears has gained significant common law trademark and other rights in its Denim Tears Marks, Denim Tears Work and Denim Tears Products through use, advertising and promotion, Denim Tears also protected its valuable rights by filing for and obtaining federal trademark registrations.
6. For example, Denim Tears owns the following U.S. Trademark Registration Nos.:

DENIM TEARS

6,130,729 for “ ” for a variety of goods in Class 25 and

6,770,233 for “ ” for a variety of goods in Class 25.

7. The Denim Tears Marks are currently in use in commerce in connection with the Denim Tears Products.
8. In addition, Denim Tears is also the owner of a registered copyright in and related to the Denim Tears Products.
9. For example, Denim Tears owns the Denim Tears Work, i.e., U.S. Copyright Registration No.: VA 2-248-145 covering “COTTON WREATH.”
10. Defendants are manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying and/or offering for sale Counterfeit Products through Defendants’ User Accounts and Merchant Storefronts with Walmart Marketplace (see Schedule A for links to Defendants’ Merchant Storefronts and Infringing Listings).
11. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors or licensees of the Denim Tears Products. Neither Plaintiff, nor any of Plaintiff's authorized agents, have consented to Defendants' use of the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Work, nor has Plaintiff consented to Defendants' use of marks and/or artwork that are confusingly and/or substantially similar to, identical to and constitute a counterfeiting or infringement of the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Work.

12. Plaintiff is likely to prevail on its Lanham Act, Copyright Act and related common law claims at trial.

13. As a result of Defendants' infringements, Plaintiff, as well as consumers, are likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted:

- a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold substandard Counterfeit Products that infringe the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Tears Work;
- b. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that more Counterfeit Products will appear in the marketplace; that consumers may be misled, confused and disappointed by the quality of these Counterfeit Products, resulting in injury to Plaintiff's reputation and goodwill and that Plaintiff may suffer loss of sales for the Denim Tears Products; and
- c. Plaintiff has well-founded fears that if they proceed on notice to Defendants on this Application, Defendants will: (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell-off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with Counterfeit Products or other goods that infringe the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Tears Work, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claims with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Work, the means of obtaining or manufacturing such Counterfeit Products, and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from its sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Work and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control and/or (iv) open new User Accounts and Merchant Storefront under new or different names and continue to offer for sale and sell Counterfeit Products with little to no consequence.

14. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is far outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Work and to its reputations if a temporary restraining order is not issued.
15. Public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Tears Work, and to protect the public from being deceived and defrauded by Defendants' passing off of their substandard Counterfeit Products as Denim Tears Products.
16. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.
17. Service on Defendants via electronic means is reasonably calculated to result in proper notice to Defendants.
18. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of their ill-gotten proceeds from their sales of Counterfeit Products or other goods infringing the Denim Tears Marks and/or Denim Tears Work. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes the Financial Institutions a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' Assets and/or Defendants' Financial Accounts and it is anticipated that it will take the Third Party Service Providers a minimum of five (5) days to freeze Defendants' Merchant Storefronts. As such, the Court allows enough time for Plaintiff to serve the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers with this Order, and for the Financial Institutions and Third Party Service Providers to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) and I(C)(1) of this Order, respectively, before requiring service on Defendants.

19. Similarly, if Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of Counterfeit Products. Therefore, Plaintiff has good cause to be granted expedited discovery.
